School of Mathematics
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Dr. von Neumann:

In reference to our telephone conversation this morning, I have requested that the necessary orders covering your forthcoming visit to the Agency be prepared. I find that time does not permit, with any degree of certainty at least, our sending the orders and transportation requests for delivery to you prior to your departure for Washington. We will therefore have the orders and forms necessary for the reimbursement of your travel expenses held here until your arrival.

I am sorry that I will be out of town next week, but am looking forward to seeing you at the spring meeting of the Scientific Advisory Board.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
