Dear Mr. Friedman:

Thank you for your courtesy in sending me a letter to follow up our recent conversation. I am sorry that our opinion as to the importance of history is less than universally shared, but will continue to be pleased that you wished to introduce my name. That was a great compliment.

Faithfully,

Dear Dr. Terrett:

I regret to have to tell you that I find that the vacancy in our historical unit is not only considerably below the lower rating you indicated would be of interest to you but, also, that there appears at the present to be no disposition to fill even that one.

It was nice to see you again.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN

Dear Dr. Terrett:

Thank you very much for your note of 3 February enclosing the clipping from the Northwestern Alumni News.

I, too, enjoyed your visit and will look forward to seeing the draft of whatever you prepare in connection with the subject we discussed.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Friedman:

A few days after our talk I received a Northwestern Alumni News which contains an account of Mr. Galland's death. I am sending it on to you by courtesy of Lieutenant Fawcett.

Please let me tell you again what pleasure and interest there was for me in seeing you that day.

Sincerely yours,

Dulany Terrett
