Dear Carl:

I was very pleased to receive your letter of 27 March, with its congratulations on the honor recently accorded me. Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness, for I really appreciate hearing from my former associates.

I note that despite the fact that you find your present work very interesting you nevertheless hearken back to your days at Arlington Hall. I am pleased thereby and know that there will be many others who will feel the same way.

With cordial greetings, and reiterated thanks,
I am,

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN

Dear Mr. Friedman,

I hear from a fairly reputable source that you have been awarded the Medal for Merit. May I take this opportunity of adding my congratulations? I think it is grand that your work has been thus recognized, and I am sure it must give you a great deal of personal satisfaction.

My work is very interesting, but I must say that I think back on my experiences at Arlington Hall with a good deal of longing.

Again, my congratulations.

Very truly yours,

Carl
