REMARKS

Dr Potter called and said that ^{request for} Shannon's investigation was initiated in August 1950, and is in the hands of the Air Materiel Command. He is expected to receive an interim clearance for SECRET in about a week. (over)

Poller thinks that a letter from Gen Smith is essential, because an approach has been previously made by Mr. Webster. Poller suggests that Gen Smith merely say that he understands Shannon's services are being sought and he hopes that he can find the time to assist in such a vital project as the one with which we are concerned. Poller has no objection to a letter also from Mr. Webster.
