Maj. General Ralph J. Canine
Dir., Armed Forces Security Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Canine:

Mr. Whitman has been out of town all week but upon his return I will certainly call his attention to the matter of personnel as outlined in your letter of 23 May. I am convinced that the positions which you requested are fully justified and we shall do whatever is possible to support your request for the establishment of these positions.

I have occasion to see Mr. Ralph Stahl rather frequently and will speak to him about these matters as soon as Mr. Whitman returns next week. Thereafter, I shall advise you of our progress.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Edwin A. Speakman

EDWIN A. SPEAKMAN
