TO: Mr. William Friedman
Armed Forces Security Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

1. I would like to express the appreciation of the entire Air Force Security Service for your uniquely interesting presentation made at the world-wide Communications Security Conference held by this Command during the period 3-7 March 1952.

2. Your lecture, "The Development of Communications Security," was most informative and interesting. Your presentation provided a historical background against which present day communications security becomes more significant and meaningful.
