D/E To Chiefs of Staff Divisions and Offices

1. after considerable study and observation of the problem of administrative control over, and responsibility for, our consultants, experts, and advisors, USA Regulation Number 10-30 was published on 12 July 1954, thereby establishing the USA Registry for Consultants.

2. With this Regulation, the Director placed certain responsibilities on the chiefs of Staff Divisions and offices as well as on the Registry for Consultants.

3. It has recently come to my attention that, in all too many cases, the provisions of this Regulation have not been followed either in fact or in spirit.

4. The Department of Defense has been subjected to some rather severe criticism recently in regard to the handling and utilization of civilian scientific consultants.

It is the Director's intention that USA give no cause for any such criticism at any time.

5. Further failure on the part of any individual or activity of USA to fulfill the provisions and accept the responsibilities as prescribed in USA Regulation 10-30 will be immediately and specifically called to the attention of the Chief of Staff for his action.
