Dear Bob:

I received your nice Christmas letter and thank you for remembering me.

This is to wish you, Edith, and the children a very Happy New Year, with good health and good cheer all the year round in 1955.

I am expecting to see you all soon, sometime after the middle of January. I have written your father as per the enclosed copy.

With cordial greetings and looking forward to seeing you soon, I am,

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
