2. TELEPHONE ARRANGEMENTS

There are no privacy equipments in the Conference offices.

All telephone extensions in the Conference offices are connected to the Carlton House Terrace switchboard, which is a subsidiary to the Foreign Office switchboard and manned from 0830 to 1900 daily (Saturdays 0830 to 1330, Sundays closed).

The switchboard is manual and the dials on the extension instruments cannot be used. A list of the extensions in the Conference Offices (together with names and room numbers) has been issued separately and these numbers should be used when calling the Conference offices since the switchboard will not be familiar with the names of the delegates and staff.

The switchboard is connected to the main Foreign Office board and through this to Cheltenham, Palmer Street, U.S. Embassy, War Office, etc., and to public numbers.

The public number of the SUSLO office in Grosvenor Square is Mayfair 9222, extensions 95 and 96.

EXTERNAL CALLSOutwards

To make an outside call, ask the operator for the public number or the Headquarters required.

Copies of the London Telephone Directory and the Cheltenham Internal Directory are available in the Secretariat Office.

2. (Continued)

Inwards

The public number of the switchboard is WHitehall 4341.
