Chairman,
United States Communications Intelligence Board.

EO 3.3(h)(2)
PL 86-36/50 USC 3605

L.S.I.B. has considered your memorandum dated 8th April respecting the release to the Turkish Government of C.C.M. equipments for diplomatic communications (CIB 00037).

2. The Board desires to express its appreciation of the fullness of U.S.C.I.B.'s explanation, and notes the assurance given in para 9 concerning the desirability of prior consultation in these matters.

3. The view expressed in para 5 - that the importance of the security of the communications of NATO powers is
