Dear Admiral B.C. Hooper, USN (Ret.)
 4425 Garfield Street, N.W.
 Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hooper:

Captain McDonald has told me of your telephone call to my office on 18 October 1954. I failed to tell him that you normally have a Washington address and to ask him to telephone you. As a consequence my last letter was sent to Florida. In accordance with your request, I am re-sending my letter of 12 October to you under separate cover.

Some of our people are now studying the regulations relative to dual compensation, in connection with the payment of a consultant's fee to a retired Naval officer. We will advise you of the pertinent implications relative to your services as soon as the study has been completed. However, some of the points may have to be clarified during your visit with me.

I am glad to know that you are now back in Washington and am looking forward to seeing you very soon.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
