

Friday August 23rd, 1963

Dear Bill:

I should have written this letter a couple of days ago, so that it would have been waiting for you, at your arrival in Lausanne. I do hope however that it will still reach you there.

Many thanks for your long letter of Aug.14., and for our last chat over the phone, before you left Stockholm. We were happy to learn that you and Elizebeth had both enjoyed the stay in Stockholm, and we trust that Visby has also proved to be an interesting experience.

And now, how about Lausanne?

I will not write anything about "business", as you will get some first hand information from Sture, when you arrive in Zug. And in about one month's time, I hope that we shall meet again in Zug.

The weather here has been variable the whole time, but still mainly on the pleasant side. We have made a couple of trips by car, one of which took us more than 100 miles north from here, and nearly to the top REF ID: A2263289 out 3500 feet elevation, from where we had a wonderful view. We also saw some beautiful reindeer, close to the road we were travelling on.

In a week's time we shall be under way to Sundsvik, where I shall stay until the 17th of Sept. and Annie until the 23rd. I will go to Zug by car with Sture, while Annie is going to take the train. Well Bill, the sun is shining, just now, and we shall have to go out and pick lingonberries, for the jam, which we shall take along to Switzerland.

Please

And excuse me: I nearly forgot to thank you for the rooster. Do you know that this bird is the symbol for the intimate place it is to indicate?

As we have this place in our home in Zug well marked, I am going to get it a permanent "hanging" in Sundsvik.

We send you both our very best wishes, and hope to hear from you some time before we leave Sweden. With affectionate regards,

Sincerely

