Dear Friedman:

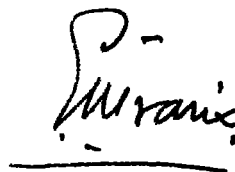

I wish to thank you so very much for all you have done for us during the conference. Everyone has expressed to me their appreciation of the way in which the conference was run. We are all extremely pleased with our stay in Washington and if we can carry out the recommendations, I feel sure it is going to be a means of shortening the war and the saving of many valuable lives.

It was most fitting that you should receive your decoration during our stay, although I wish it had been just a couple of days earlier. Anyway we all feel that no decoration has been more justly earned.

I'm off to Montreal tomorrow night and hope to be back in B.P. on Friday. New York has been most refreshing and enjoyable.

My kindest regards to Mrs. Friedman.

Yours very sincerely,
